"Ultimative Papa smurf in driving machine"

Hi all 😊

now I would like to proudly present my newest figurine in my collection:

Papasmurf

Could you imagine how much people got very big eyes, got smiling and wondered when I overtook them on the highway or when they drove beside us in the city traffic ?? 😊

I think they are as much speechless as Papasmurf during the journey of 340 km (211 miles) into his new home. He was a very silent co-driver.

But finally I think we both enjoyed the trip in this car - by the way, this is the NEW "MINI COOPER", built by BMW Group.

(A company car which I could borrow for this journey, but would like to have one, it's amazing).

SORRY, no questions, no chance, no way: NOT FOR SALE, NEVER !

Seems I have to clean him a little bit.

Thanks Dirk for providing technical support 😊

Hi Angelsmurf 😊

I think this is hilarious 😊😊😊

I especially like the second picture from above, it looks like Papa smurf wants to hold hands with you, LOL 😊

I can imagine how other drivers starred at you, I know I would !!!

That's a great addition to your famous collection.

Here's the smaller version 😊

Hey, Minismurfy: Which one do you like better??? Angelsmurf's car or the smurf, LOL 😊
This must be a GREAT combination for you.

Hi Angelsmurf,

I think there could be a new promotion for Mini's after viewing those pics of Papa Smurf. I wonder if the production company for Mini's and IMPS would go for it???

Just a thought but I think it would be real Smurfy.

Was anyone standing by and watching you Angelsmurf when you arranged Papa Smurf in the car? Great post!

Smurfy regards,

Martin.

Hi. He is very cool. I need one so I can freak other drivers out during rush hour! How fun that would be 😊

He is amazing, a wonderful addition to any collection.

A cartoon illustration of a Smurf riding a bicycle. The Smurf is wearing his signature blue hat and pants, with a red and white polka-dot shirt. He is smiling and looking forward. The bicycle is black with a red seat and handlebars. There are motion lines around the wheels, suggesting speed.

Hi all 😊

glad to see you all have enjoyed looking on the pictures which made you smiling and you shared the fun I've had by arranging the smurf for the pics. (Only a few pedestrians watched me during that).
Thanks for all the friendly comments.

If I sometimes think about the trip to Vienna / Austria (especially on the other drivers or co-drivers in other cars) it always makes me smiling. Should I take the big Papasmurf frequently in my car as co-driver?? 😊

I found the Papasmurf on German ebay in September, there were only a few bids and the final price was cheap (in my opinion). Just a little bit higher than the regular price for dealers in the 80's. Maybe because of the high postage to Germany (or especially out of Europe)??

keep on smurfin'
